

Brooks Bruneau and Todd Denys Recognized by WTR 1000 - The World's Leading Trademark

March 5, 2014

Porzio intellectual property lawyers, Brooks R. Bruneau and Todd A. Denys have once again been recognized in the WTR 1000 - The World's Leading Trademark Professionals. The WTR 1000 is the only definitive guide exclusively dedicated to identifying the world's leading trademark legal services providers. Through an extensive research process conducted by a team of highly qualified, full-time analysts, the publication identifies the leading trademark law firms and individuals in over 50 global jurisdictions.

The research process was conducted over several months by a team of full-time analysts and involved more than 1,500 interviews with trademark specialists across the globe. Law firms and individual practitioners qualify for inclusion in the WTR 1000 upon receiving sufficient positive feedback from market sources.

It was noted in the guide that, "Internationally acclaimed Porzio Bromberg & Newman is among the state's premier outfits. Traditionally, it has been best known for its sterling litigation capabilities, but its effective prosecution provision is now an equally admired facet of its overall trademark service."

Recognized for having "incredibly deep knowledge," Mr. Bruneau concentrates his practice in trademark and copyright litigation, prosecution, licensing, and counseling on the clearance and registration of clients' trademarks, both in the United States and globally. Mr. Denys, who counsels clients in trademark, copyright and domain name matters is described as "fantastic... performs extremely well across the spectrum."

For additional information about the WTR 1000 or its research methodology, please click here.