Porzio Life Sciences 2015 Year-End Report: Navigating the Regulatory Landscape

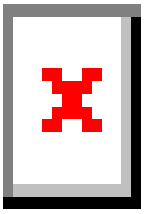

February 24, 2016

Porzio Life Sciences ("PorzioLS") has been a leading resource for the life sciences industry for over 11 years. The 2014 Year-End Report was the first annual PorzioLS accounting of the headlines and emerging trends of the prior year. Continuing in this vein is the 2015 Year-End Report: Navigating the Regulatory Landscape.

Topics include:

- Distribution & Licensing
    - Track and Trace Requirements for Wholesalers, Manufacturers and Repackagers
    - Wholesaler and Third-Party Logistics Providers ("3PL") Licenses Reporting
    - Massachusetts Alternatives to Sampling
    - Medical Device Excise Tax
- Enforcement Actions
    - FDA Office of Prescription Drug Promotion Enforcement Letters
    - FDA Guidances Regarding Drug Promotion
    - Government Prosecutions: Major Settlements
    - Pharmaceutical Companies vs. The FDA
- International Transparency
    - Ready or Not: Make Way for the Global Transparency Movement
    - Key 2015 Ex-US Events
    - 2016 International Reporting Deadlines
- Mid-Level Regulations
    - Key Changes to Mid-Level Regulations in 2015
    - The Advanced Practice Registered Nurses ("APRN") Independence Movement
- US Transparency

- Sunshine Act Changes Affecting 2016 Data
- Pending Legislation to Amend the Sunshine Act
- State Legislation Requiring the Reporting of Marketing and Advertising Costs

To read the full report, please click here.