Summer Action Items - Key Planning for Young Adults

July 9, 2019

Authored by: Michael S. Mirone & Deirdre R. Wheatley-Liss

Ahh, it's the season. Newly minted "adults" going off to college or starting careers. You may have noticed that while they are now "adults," your parenting role has not ended. However, your right to access financial records and make medical decisions ends at age 18 in New Jersey and New York. What is a parent to do?

To continue reading click here.