Janelle Edwards-Stewart is a member of the Education, Employment and Labor Team at Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, P.C. She is a respected speaker on current education and employment law topics and provides comprehensive counsel to various businesses and educational institutions, advising public and private entities in sectors such as education, healthcare, and insurance on a broad range of matters. Her adeptness in federal and state courts and administrative agencies showcases her legal background and effective representation of her clients.

Employment and Labor

As a member of the Employment and Labor Team at Porzio, Janelle advises public entities and private companies in fields including education, healthcare, and insurance on employment matters ranging from defense of discrimination allegations and claimed violations of the New Jersey Conscientious Employee Protection Act (CEPA) to internal investigations of employee wrongdoing.

Outside General Counsel & Litigation – Employment and Labor

Janelle advises clients on discrete matters or serves as outside general counsel on day-to-day operations and labor and employment issues. She also provides key support to human resource personnel, including assessing policies and complaints related to employee discipline and removal, discrimination, disability accommodations and leaves of absence, harassment, reductions in force, restrictive covenants, and wage and hour disputes. Additionally, Janelle addresses and offers solutions for employment contract disputes, questions of regulatory compliance, and standards for implementing and enforcing employment policies. Janelle represents clients in federal and state courts and before administrative agencies, including the EEOC and the New Jersey Department of Labor.

Education Law

As a member of the Education Team at Porzio, Janelle advises and serves as outside general counsel for Approved Private Schools for Students with Disabilities (APSSDs), independent schools, various public school districts, and public colleges.

APSSD Counsel and Advocacy

As a trusted advisor to APSSD administrators and educators, Janelle works closely with ASAH (the premiere trade organization for NJ APSSDs) member schools on day-to-day legal and operational issues as well as long-term compliance with new and existing Department of Education regulations. A large majority of her counsel focuses on resolving staff-related issues, student programming and discipline issues, and addressing claims threatened or filed by employees or families.

Janelle is a frequent speaker at public schools, private independent schools, and APSSD annual conventions and events. She conducts legal workshops with administrators and educators to support their services that are comprehensive to their respective student populations, which typically include children with developmental disabilities, behavioral issues, and other such challenges.

Janelle also works with the Porzio Governmental Affairs (PGA) team to provide strategic guidance on shaping and advocating for laws and regulations that support ASAH's, and its member schools', objectives.

Outside General Counsel & Litigation - Education

In Janelle's role as outside general counsel for private schools, she advises on issues and disputes involving general operations, and labor and employment. She counsels and does trainings for education clients on bullying and student discipline as well as employee discipline, removal, discrimination, and tenure. Additionally, she assesses commercial contract disputes, construction bids, employment contracts, regulatory compliance, safety issues, and policy drafting, implementation, and enforcement. Janelle also has significant experience representing education clients in federal and state courts and before administrative agencies, including the EEOC and the New Jersey Department of Labor.
