John Patrick Oroho is Of Counsel to Porzio, Bromberg & Newman. John focuses his practice on life sciences compliance and regulatory consulting in the areas of Aggregate Spend, Physician Payment Sunshine Act, the Prescription Drug Marketing Act (PDMA), Antikickback Statute, False Claims Act, and Medicare and Medicaid fraud and abuse. Mr. Oroho is a noted expert on pharmaceutical compliance, specifically OIG and state compliance with Sales and Marketing and product distribution. He has written and lectured extensively on these, as well as other life science compliance issues. He has worked with companies under Corporate Integrity Agreements to ensure their compliance with the standards established for pharmaceutical marketing and sales. Mr. Oroho previously served as Senior Vice President and General Counsel for the PDMA Alliance, a national trade association focused on sample distribution and pharmaceutical marketing and sales compliance. Mr. Oroho has been responsible for the development of Aggregate Spend systems and PDMA-compliant sample tracking systems.

Mr. Oroho also serves as the Senior Advisor, Global Life Sciences, at RLDatix Life Sciences. He spent nearly two decades at Porzio Life Sciences, LLC—leading the division up until its acquisition by RLDatix. During much of this time, he also served as a Principal at Porzio, Bromberg & Newman for nearly 20 years, aligning his efforts across both organizations to advance the firm's life sciences practice.
