Andrew Laver brings a unique blend of legal industry insight, strategic vision, and hands-on leadership to his role as Chief Marketing & Business Development Officer at Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, P.C. With a career spanning more than two decades, Andrew has held senior roles at AmLaw-ranked and regional firms, consistently elevating marketing and business development functions to drive firm growth.

At Porzio, Andrew oversees the marketing and BD efforts of both the law firm and its wholly owned subsidiaries. He partners closely with firm leadership to develop and execute strategic plans, build client feedback programs, and implement data-driven initiatives that enhance pipeline visibility and pursuit performance. His leadership has resulted in increased client engagement, expanded market presence, and improved ROI across campaigns and events.

Andrew is a passionate advocate for professional development, having designed and implemented firmwide business development training programs for attorneys at all levels. His coaching and mentorship have helped cultivate a culture of strategic growth and client service excellence.

A frequent speaker and podcast guest, Andrew shares insights on emerging trends in legal marketing, leadership, professional development and business development. He has presented at over 25 venues nationwide, including serving as the Co-Chair of the 2019 Legal Marketing Association (LMA) Annual Conference in Atlanta, GA.

Active in LMA, Andrew was the President of the Metropolitan Philadelphia Chapter in 2014 and joined the LMA's Governance Committee in 2015 where he served as Co-Chair from 2017-2018. He served as Co-Chair of the 2nd Annual Philadelphia Education Conference in 2016 and served as a member of the 2017 LMA Annual Conference Advisory Committee in Las Vegas, NV. Andrew served as a Member-At-Large to the LMA Board of Directors from 2019-2021, served as Treasurer Elect to the LMA Board in 2022 and served as Treasurer to the LMA Board in 2023.

Andrew is a graduate of Syracuse University and was president of the Syracuse University Philadelphia Alumni Club from 2007-2010. Since then, he served on the board of the Syracuse University National Alumni Association, Inc. in various committee, ex officio, and board roles. He served two consecutive two-year terms as Vice President of the Alumni Association and, as a member of the Executive Committee, chaired the Awards and Nominating Committees.
