Porzio is proud to congratulate principal John S. Mairo on his induction into the Columbia High School Athletic Hall of Fame on May 10, 2018 in South Orange, New Jersey. The annual ceremony recognizes the remarkable contributions that local athletes have made to their respective sports and to the community at large.

Mr. Mairo made a name for himself not only as one of the best soccer players in Columbia High School history, but as one of the best players in New Jersey throughout his athletic career. He continued his soccer career at Boston College, where he helped lead his team to capture the Big East Conference championship.

As a principal at Porzio, Mr. Mairo concentrates his practice in the areas of commercial litigation, workouts, financial reorganizations and creditors' rights. He is admitted to practice in New Jersey and New York courts. He is certified in Business Bankruptcy Law by the American Board Of Certification and received the AV rating (highest rating) by his peers in the Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory. In addition, he successfully completed the INSOL Global Insolvency Practice Course and is recognized as an INSOL International Fellow.
