On August 21, 2018, Gary Fellner, Principal of Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, P.C. (Porzio), was successful in obtaining a decision in favor of Porzio's clients from Justice Timothy Driscoll of the New York State Supreme Court, Nassau County, denying Capital One Equipment Finance Corp.'s motion for summary judgement seeking damages of over $34,000,000 in Capital One Equipment Finance Corp. v. Offer Harari et al.

In his decision, Justice Driscoll ruled that Porzio's clients, as they argued, showed that there are material factual questions regarding the accuracy and reliability of the lender's records, and therefore, they are entitled to pretrial discovery.

The Porzio team was led by attorney Gary Fellner with assistance from Allan Young, Joshua Abramson, Russell Porter, and Suzanne Hammill.
