By: Ryann Siclari, CELA*

Porzio, Bromberg & Newman P.C. welcomes Ryann Siclari to the Wealth Preservation Group. Ms. Siclari concentrates her practice on estate planning, estate and trust administration, and long-term care and Medicaid planning. Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Siclari was a Senior Staff Attorney, Health and Elder Law for Central Jersey Legal Services. Ryann handles Medicaid issues such as applications, denials and terminations and also assists with a range of legal matters including improper discharges from nursing homes, drafting wills, special needs trusts, and third-party decision-making documents such as powers of attorney and advance directives. She is a sought after speaker on a variety of health and elder law topics.

Ms. Siclari received her LL.M from Stetson University College of Law, Tampa, FL, with distinction, her J.D. from Widener University, Delaware Law School, Wilmington, DE, magna cum laude, and her B.A. from the University of Alaska Fairbanks, Fairbanks, AK also magna cum laude.
