Porzio Bromberg and Newman, P.C. is pleased to announce the launch of an expanded Business Law practice, chaired by Principal Pamela M. Kapsimalis. Porzio's Business Law team provides counseling and corporate transactional support to all types and sizes of businesses, concentrating in middle-market businesses based in New Jersey, Delaware, and New York. Uniquely positioned to serve as a team of outside general counsel, these attorneys provide businesses with effective, cost-efficient counsel that brings together the broad resources of Porzio Bromberg & Newman and the firm's full scope of services.

Porzio's team of business law attorneys includes former in-house counsel and attorneys with masters degrees in corporate, finance and tax law, who understand and assist businesses navigate complex financial, tax, securities, real estate, lending, and other legal issues related to company growth strategies.

"Over the past three years, we have invested our time in working to understand the unique needs of our middle market clients," said Kapsimalis. "We work with businesses to help them leverage their current legal capacity by serving as an extension of their team. We add value by providing access to the firm's attorneys who have legal expertise in key areas and then creating an effective team to assist with outside general counsel needs. By collaborating with Porzio Bromberg & Newman's employment, bankruptcy, wealth preservation, commercial real estate and litigation teams, we can provide optimal solutions for the business needs of our clients. We also have a unique affiliation with Porzio Compliance Services, a wholly owned subsidiary of Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, in providing investigative and security compliance services to complement our outside counsel services."

Key members of the Business Law team are attorneys Robert Ferri, Cheryl Santaniello, Carmen Andrade, Keren Bisnauth, Jonathan King, and Sean Reid, each of whom bring a wealth of experience and expertise in a variety of industries such as corporate transactions, tax, commercial real estate, lending, construction, franchising, retail, environmental, and warehousing.

"By leveraging the experience and rich background of these attorneys, this team is prepared to elevate the delivery of legal and business solutions to middle market companies in the region," said Vito A. Gagliardi, Jr., Managing Principal of Porzio and president of the firm's three wholly-owned subsidiaries. "Complex legal issues require smart, practical solutions, and these attorneys are positioned to help businesses coordinate their needs to align with the full scope of resources that Porzio has to offer."
