Porzio Welcomes Associate Ivan Tukhtin to the Firm's Business Law Group

June 25, 2021

Porzio, Bromberg & Newman P.C. is pleased to welcome new associate, Ivan Tukhtin, to the firm's Business Law Group.

Mr. Tukhtin will concentrate his practice on assisting middle-market businesses with matters related to commercial and business litigation, labor and employment, franchise law, as well as cannabis law. Mr. Tukhtin has counseled clients on numerous matters, including but not limited to business formation, contract disputes and negotiation, mergers and acquisitions, the drafting of employment agreements and handbooks, and much more.

Before joining Porzio, Mr. Tukhtin served as an associate at a private law firm, focusing on various aspects of Intellectual Property ranging from registration of trademarks to the drafting, structuring and negotiating of contracts and licenses. He earned his J.D. from New York Law School and his undergraduate degree in Political Science from Rutgers University.

Porzio's Business Law Group recently announced its expanding practice, providing counseling and corporate transactional support to all types and sizes of businesses, concentrating in middle-market businesses based in New Jersey, Delaware, and New York. Uniquely positioned to serve as a team of outside general counsel, these attorneys provide businesses with effective, cost-efficient counsel that brings together the broad resources of Porzio Bromberg & Newman and the firm's full scope of services.
