Porzio Welcomes Michelle M. Krol

July 12, 2021

Porzio, Bromberg & Newman P.C. welcomes Michelle M. Krol to the Litigation Group. Ms. Krol concentrates her practice on litigating personal injury, product liability, and premises liability matters in state and federal court. An experienced litigator, she has experience conducting depositions, appearing for and attending arbitration proceedings, settlement conferences, client meetings, and case management conferences.

Ms. Krol clerked for the Honorable Francis B. Schultz in the Civil Division Hudson County Court. During this time, she became a Court Certified Mediator and mediated small claims among pro se litigants, including actions in torts, or breach of contracts claim.

Ms. Krol received her J.D. from Rutgers School of Law in Newark, NJ, and her B.S. from Stockton, University in Pomona, NJ. She is admitted to practice in New Jersey and the Federal District Court of New Jersey.