Porzio's Education and Employment Team Welcomes Nicole Little and Weston Kulick

September 29, 2021

Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, P.C., proudly announce that Nicole Little and Weston Kulick have joined the firm on September 13, 2021. Both will be associates on the Education and Employment Team and part of the Litigation Practice Group.

Little concentrates her practice in the areas of education and employment law. She joins the firm after serving as an Assistant Law Clerk for the Honorable Lynn R. Kottler of the State of New York Supreme Court, Civil Division.

Little received a Bachelor of Education from the Ontario Tech University, a Master of Arts in Science Education from Western Governors University, and a Juris Doctor from Rutgers School of Law-Newark. Having spent approximately a decade teaching, she is certified to teach from the State of New Jersey and New York Education Departments. Little is admitted to practice in New Jersey and New York.

Kulick's practice focuses on employment, education, and general liability. He has experience managing general liability and insurance defense matters. Prior to joining Porzio, Kulick served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Craig L. Corson, Superior Court of New Jersey, Middlesex County. Most recently, he was an associate in the litigation practice of a New Jersey law firm.

Kulick earned his Juris Doctor, cum laude, from Seton Hall University School of Law, and a Bachelor of Arts from Ramapo College of New Jersey, where he graduated magna cum laude. Kulick is admitted to practice in New Jersey, the District of New Jersey, and New York.

Both Little and Kulick will be residents in Porzio's Morristown office.
