Porzio Bromberg and Newman, P.C. is pleased to share that Wealth Preservation Chair and Principal Crystal West Edwards has been selected to receive the prestigious Distinguished Service Award from the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education (NJICLE).

The award is given annually to recipients who have made significant contributions to NJICLE, a division of the New Jersey State Bar Association (NJSBA), and its educational mission.

Following a two-year hiatus due to the COVID-19 pandemic, NJICLE will welcome and recognize the 2020 and 2021 award winners for an in-person reception on September 12th at the New Jersey Law Center in New Brunswick.

"Edwards has long been a frequent and devoted speaker for NJICLE. She has been a moderator/speaker for the Elder and Disability Law Symposium every year since 2011," shared the New Jersey State Bar Association. In addition, she speaks on numerous other programs dealing with elder and disability law, including but not limited to the Elder and Disability Law Retreat, the Estate Planning Summer Institute, the Advanced Estate Administration program, and the Tax and Estate Planning Forum.
