Porzio's Chief Financial Officer, Maddalena Minardi, Recognized in NJBiz Best 50 Women in Business

September 16, 2022

Congratulations to Porzio's Chief Financial Officer, Maddalena Minardi, for being recognized in NJBiz Best 50 Women in Business. After an open nomination process, NJBIz selected the honorees based on their significant impact on NJ industries and the community. Maddalena was selected for wide range of reasons including her unending work ethic including 27 years of loyal service to Porzio, her commitment to innovation and advancing the role of business executives in the legal industry, and her service to the community in her role as a member of the board of directors for Matheny Medical Center. To view the full list of honorees, click here.