Porzio's Benjamin L. Lindeman Appointed as Trustee of the Morris County Bar Association

January 20, 2023

Benjamin Lindeman, an associate of Porzio, Bromberg & Newman and a member of the firm's environmental and real estate practices, has been appointed as a Trustee of the Morris County Bar Association. In his role as trustee, he will provide guidance to the association.

Mr. Lindeman focuses his practice on land use and redevelopment law, and counsels clients on real estate leasing, transactions and litigation matters. He also counsels private clients on land use applications and proceedings and variance relief from local boards.

Mr. Lindeman has previously served on the Long Hill Township Zoning Board of Adjustment, the Long Hill Township Recreation Committee, and the Watchung Hills Alliance.

About the Morris County Bar Association

The Morris County Bar Association, with over 550 members, is a professional association of attorneys and members of the judiciary who live in and/or practice law in Morris County.