By: Crystal Edwards

Porzio, Bromberg & Newman is pleased to announce that Crystal West Edwards has been appointed to the Board of Trustees of Pillar Care Continuum. With extensive experience in elder law, special needs planning and advocacy, estate planning and estate administration, and counseling, Edwards is a valuable addition to the board.

Pillar Care Continuum provides a wide range of services to infants, children, and adults with over 100 different disabilities and diagnoses. The organization is led by a volunteer Board of Trustees, who lend their expertise to guide and support its mission.

Edwards' appointment underscores her professional excellence and commitment to community service. Her leadership will be invaluable as Pillar Care continues to expand its impact and fulfill its mission.

Edwards joins Porzio Corporate Principal, David J. Carlson, on the Board of Trustees. Carlson is the immediate past chair, bringing further strength and continuity to the board's leadership.
