Raquel R. Rivera Appointed to New Jersey Supreme Court's District XB Ethics Committee

August 30, 2024

By: Raquel Rivera

Raquel R. Rivera, Counsel in the firm's Litigation Group, has been appointed to the New Jersey Supreme Court's District XB Ethics Committee, serving West Morris and Sussex counties. Her term will commence on September 1, 2024, and run through August 31, 2028.

District Ethics Committees play a vital role in upholding the integrity of the legal profession in New Jersey. They are responsible for investigating and prosecuting allegations of attorney misconduct within their designated districts. Rivera's appointment reflects her dedication to ethical conduct and her commitment to the legal profession.

Rivera is an experienced trial lawyer who defends large-scale entities in products and premises liability matters and represents white-collar and employment defense clients in complex litigation. She also serves as appointed counsel for federal criminal defendants who are financially unable to obtain adequate representation, under the Criminal Justice Act.

As a former Assistant Prosecutor, Rivera brings a strong commitment to justice, making her a valuable addition to the District XB Ethics Committee. Her role will involve evaluating complaints of unethical conduct and ensuring that attorneys adhere to the professional standards required by the New Jersey Supreme Court.
