By: Ryann Siclari, CELA*

Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, P.C. is proud to announce that Ryann Siclari, a principal in the firm's Wealth Preservation Group, will be honored with the Joseph B. Young Excellence in Legal Advocacy Award at the Disability Rights New Jersey's Impact Awards.

The Joseph B. Young Excellence in Legal Advocacy Award, named for the second Executive Director of Disability Rights NJ, honors individuals who have demonstrated outstanding legal advocacy in advancing the human, civil, and legal rights of people with disabilities. Ryann's exceptional contributions to elder and disability law, combined with her commitment to empowering individuals and families to achieve their goals, have made her a standout leader in the field.

As a Certified Elder Law Attorney (CELA) accredited by the National Elder Law Foundation, Ryann's practice focuses on long-term care, government benefits planning, and estate planning. She works closely with aging individuals, people with disabilities, and their families to help them achieve vital legal and health-related goals, such as securing adequate health coverage and facilitating aging in place.

Ryann's commitment extends beyond private practice, demonstrated through her work with organizations like Central Jersey Legal Services, Disability Rights NJ, and the Community Health Law Project. As Chair of the New Jersey Chapter of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, she actively advocates for legislation that benefits people with disabilities, collaborating with key partners to improve the lives of New Jersey's most vulnerable populations.

Ryann will be honored during the 30th anniversary celebration of the Disability Rights Impact Awards on October 10, 2024, at The Boathouse at Mercer Lake in West Windsor, New Jersey.
