Porzio, Bromberg & Newman is proud to announce that Crystal West Edwards, a Principal in the firm's Wealth Preservation Group, has been appointed to the Board of Trustees of the Community Foundation of New Jersey (CFNJ).

Edwards' appointment underscores her professional excellence and commitment to community service. With extensive experience in elder law, special needs planning, estate administration, and complex tax planning, she provides invaluable counsel to families, seniors, and individuals with disabilities.

The CFNJ is dedicated to improving lives across New Jersey, leveraging nearly $1 billion in assets to provide impactful philanthropic solutions. The Foundation collaborates with funders, non-profits, businesses, and individuals to create innovative giving strategies that address critical challenges and make a lasting impact.

As a respected leader in her field, Edwards is also co-chair of the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Committee of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA) and a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC). Her appointment to the CFNJ Board highlights her ongoing commitment to enhancing both professional and community well-being.
