By: William Krais

Porzio, Bromberg & Newman is proud to announce that William A. Krais was recognized with the Civil Practice Award at the Morris County Bar Association's Annual Installation & Awards Dinner, held on April 10.

This prestigious honor is awarded annually to a lawyer member of the Morris County Bar Association who has elevated their area of practice through exceptional service, professionalism, and a dedication to fostering strong relationships between practitioners and the judiciary. The award celebrates outstanding service to the Bar, its members, and the broader community.

Krais, Chair of the firm's Personal Injury and Medical Malpractice Group, is widely respected for his work in medical malpractice and serious personal injury litigation. He represents individuals in cases involving birth injuries, surgical errors, delays in diagnosing cancer, wrongful death, and other life-altering events. In addition, Krais is a trusted advisor to fellow attorneys on legal ethics, drawing on his experience as Past Chair of the District X Attorney Ethics Committee and multiple appointments by the New Jersey Supreme Court as a Special Ethics Master and Hearing Chair.

Known for his professionalism and commitment to excellence, Krais exemplifies the values celebrated by this award. His dedication to the legal profession and advocacy for both clients and colleagues continue to have a meaningful impact on the legal community in Morris County and beyond.
