Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, P.C. is pleased to announce that Kimberly N. Pageau has joined the firm as Counsel in the Bankruptcy and Financial Restructuring group. Based in the New York office, Pageau brings a wealth of experience representing businesses, creditors, committees, and investors in sophisticated restructuring and insolvency matters across industries including cryptocurrency, retail, and oil & gas.

Pageau advises clients on all aspects of bankruptcy proceedings, debt restructurings, and related litigation, with a strong focus on helping companies and stakeholders navigate financial distress with strategic, practical solutions. Her early-stage planning and deep understanding of bankruptcy law position her to effectively guide clients through complex challenges.

"I'm thrilled to join Porzio's highly respected restructuring team," said Pageau. "The firm's collaborative culture and focus on delivering sophisticated, business-minded solutions really align with how I approach client service. I look forward to contributing to the continued growth and success of the practice."

Warren J. Martin, Chair of the Bankruptcy and Financial Restructuring team, added, "Kim's experience and client-first mindset make her a strong addition to our team. Her background enhances our capabilities and reflects our continued commitment to serving clients in complex and evolving financial situations."

Pageau earned her J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School and her B.A. from the University of Michigan. She is an active member of the American Bankruptcy Institute and the Turnaround Management Association.
