Effective as of March 31, 2025, Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, P.C. is serving as the designated custodian of original wills and related documents previously prepared by Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP's estate planning group.

Porzio is committed to ensuring continued, high quality service and those who previously retained Stroock to draft estate planning documents are encouraged to contact Porzio with any questions regarding the original documents now under their custody since Stroock is no longer practicing law. For inquiries, please reach out via email at StroockEstatePlanning@pbnlaw.com or by phone at (646) 348-6770.

With over 60 years of experience in wealth preservation, Porzio's trusted Wealth Preservation team is well-positioned to manage and safeguard estate planning documents, and offer guidance in complex areas such as estate administration, asset protection, trust management, and tax-efficient strategies.
