Porzio, Bromberg & Newman Welcomes Its 2025 Summer Associate Class

June 11, 2025

Porzio, Bromberg & Newman welcomes three law students to its 2025 Summer Associate Program. Over the course of the eight-week program, these rising second and third year students will work closely with firm attorneys to gain hands-on experience and develop practical legal skills including research, writing, and client service.

Porzio's 2025 Summer Associate class includes:

Natalie Cestone is a rising third year student at Penn State Dickinson Law, where she has been recognized for academic excellence, including receiving a CALI Award in Wills, Trusts, & Estates. Natalie earned her B.A. in Political Science from Colgate University, with minors in Russian and Eurasian Studies and Writing and Rhetoric. She has served as a legal extern with the Pennsylvania Office of Attorney General and as a summer associate, gaining valuable experience in legal research, litigation support, and client service. Natalie is active in several student organizations including serving as Secretary of the Business Law Society and as 2L Representative of the Latinx Law Student Association. She has also published writings on international legal issues.

Oscar Dudus is a rising second year student at Rutgers Law School, where he serves as the 1L Representative for both the Student Bar Association and the Immigration Rights Collective. Oscar earned his B.A. in English, cum laude, with a minor in Political Science from Rutgers University. He previously interned with the New Jersey Office of the Attorney General, Division of Criminal Justice, where he contributed to legal research and case development.

Roger Kilgore is a rising second year student at Rutgers Law School and a graduate of Yale University, where he earned a B.A. in American Studies. Before law school, Roger served as a U.S. Army Infantry Officer, attaining the rank of Captain and leading a unit of more than 480 soldiers. His civilian experience includes serving as Special Assistant to the Mayor of Rahway, NJ, and as an intern in the office of Senator Cory Booker.

Porzio is proud to invest in the development of future legal talent through the immersive training and mentorship offered by its Summer Associate Program.
