Ryann Siclari, Principal in the firm's Wealth Preservation Group, has been appointed as a Trustee on the Board of Trustees for the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA) Foundation, with a term running through May 31, 2027.

The NAELA Foundation Board is composed of experienced elder law and special needs planning attorneys, public service lawyers, and academics dedicated to advancing the Foundation's mission of supporting older Americans and individuals with special needs.

As a key member of Porzio's Wealth Preservation Group, Ryann specializes in elder and disability law, focusing on long-term care planning, government benefits advocacy, estate and trust administration, and estate planning. She is a Certified Elder Law Attorney (CELA) accredited by the ABA-Recognized National Elder Law Foundation and holds an LL.M. in Elder Law. Ryann brings deep expertise and a strong commitment to client advocacy to her new role on the NAELA Foundation Board.

Ryann is actively involved in the New Jersey chapter of NAELA, where she has served as President, been a member of the Board of Trustees from 2017 to 2019, and Chaired the Legislation Committee.

“I am honored to join the NAELA Foundation Board of Trustees and contribute to an organization that fosters research and growing next-generation professionals to benefit older adults and individuals with special needs,” said Siclari. “This opportunity allows me to further serve the elder law community and the clients we are privileged to support.”

Ryann's service on the NAELA Foundation Board reflects her continued commitment to improving the lives of older adults and individuals with special needs through both legal practice and community leadership.
