David Singer, a Principal in Porzio's Environmental Practice Group, has officially begun his three-year term as a voting member of the Rutgers Alumni Association's (RAA) Nominating Committee, serving from July 1, 2025 through June 30, 2028. This election reflects David's deep commitment to Rutgers and his passion for fostering a strong, engaged alumni community.

The RAA—founded in 1831—is the nation's fourth-oldest functioning alumni group and the largest chartered alumni organization at Rutgers. As a voting member of the Nominating Committee, David will help shape the future of the organization by supporting the selection of impactful leaders and championing meaningful alumni initiatives.

David's dedication to Rutgers is longstanding. He currently serves as Co-President of the Cook Community Alumni Association, representing the university's land-grant legacy, and is a Board Member and Past President of that organization. He also serves on the RAA Board and assists students through Rutgers Student Legal Services.
