By: Ryann Siclari, CELA*

Ryann Siclari, Principal in the firm's Wealth Preservation Group, has been sworn in as a Trustee of the Hunterdon County Bar Association (HCBA). In this role, Ryann will support the Association's mission to promote legal excellence, collegiality, and service within the Hunterdon County legal community.

Ryann focuses her practice on elder and disability law, including long-term care planning, government benefits advocacy, estate and trust administration, and estate planning. She is a Certified Elder Law Attorney (CELA) accredited by the ABA-Recognized National Elder Law Foundation and holds an LL.M. in Elder Law.

Her appointment underscores her long-standing commitment to the Hunterdon County community, where she works closely with local families to navigate complex planning needs. It also aligns with the firm's recently opened office in Clinton, which expands access to estate and elder law services for individuals and families across the region.

In addition to her new role with the HCBA, Ryann recently joined the Board of Trustees of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA) Foundation and is actively involved in the New Jersey chapter of NAELA, where she has served as President, Trustee, and Chair of the Legislation Committee.

Ryann's appointment to the HCBA Board of Trustees reflects her professional integrity, leadership, and dedication to advancing the legal profession while strengthening services for the Hunterdon County community.
