By: Sameer Prasla

Sameer Prasla, an associate in the firm's Wealth Preservation Group, has been appointed to the District XB Ethics Committee of the New Jersey Supreme Court, serving West Morris and Sussex counties. His term runs from September 1, 2025, through August 31, 2029.

District Ethics Committees play a crucial role in maintaining the integrity of New Jersey's legal profession by evaluating and overseeing attorney conduct within their respective districts. Sameer's appointment reflects his commitment to upholding ethical standards and serving the legal community.

In his practice, Sameer focuses on estate planning, estate administration, corporate structuring, and complex tax matters for corporations, partnerships, and LLCs. He works closely with individuals and families to protect assets, plan for the future, and navigate sensitive personal and financial decisions. Fluent in Hindi and Urdu, Sameer is able to serve a diverse client base with cultural awareness and care. He is also an active member of the South Asian Bar Association and the Asian Pacific American Lawyers Association, demonstrating his dedication to professional growth and community engagement.

As a member of the District XB Ethics Committee, Sameer will review complaints of unethical conduct and help ensure attorneys adhere to the professional standards required by the New Jersey Supreme Court. His integrity, thoughtful judgment, and client-focused approach make him a valuable addition to the committee.
