By: Tara Schellhorn

Tara Schellhorn has been named to Lawdragon's 2026 500 Leading Global Bankruptcy & Restructuring Lawyers, a global guide recognizing attorneys who have made significant and lasting contributions to the field of bankruptcy and financial restructuring.

A Principal in the firm's Bankruptcy & Financial Restructuring department, Schellhorn advises businesses, financial institutions, and fiduciaries through complex insolvency and Chapter 11 matters. Her practice spans debtor and creditor representation, trustee and indenture trustee matters, and high-stakes restructuring and bankruptcy litigation.

The Lawdragon 500 is curated through a rigorous process that blends independent journalistic research, submissions from firms and clients, and peer review, with honorees selected based on impact, leadership, and contributions to bankruptcy and restructuring matters of notable scale or complexity. Lawdragon is a leading digital media company that recognizes top legal professionals across practice areas, drawing on decades of reporting focused on recent work, professional standing, and leadership within the legal community.
