David Disler Re-Elected Vice President of New Jersey Association of School Attorneys Northern District

July 15, 2026

By: David Disler

David Disler, Principal on Porzio's Employment and Education Team, has been re-elected Vice President of the Northern District of the New Jersey Association of School Attorneys (NJASA).

Disler has been actively involved with NJASA for many years, serving as both a trustee and Vice President while helping further the organization's mission of supporting attorneys who represent educational institutions throughout New Jersey. His new term took effect on July 1, 2026.

Disler counsels boards of education, school districts, charter schools, and other educational institutions on a wide range of education law matters, including special education, labor and employment issues, board governance, student rights, investigations, and regulatory compliance. He is a trusted resource to clients navigating the complex legal and operational challenges facing schools throughout New Jersey, and his re-election reflects the respect he has earned among his peers and fellow school law practitioners.

"NJASA plays an important role in fostering collaboration and professional development within New Jersey's school law community," said Disler. "I am grateful for the opportunity to continue serving in this leadership role and look forward to supporting the organization and its members in the year ahead."

The New Jersey Association of School Attorneys is dedicated to advancing the practice of school law and supporting attorneys who represent boards of education and educational institutions across the state.
Through professional development programs, educational resources, and opportunities for collaboration, NJASA helps members stay informed on the evolving legal issues affecting New Jersey schools.

Disler's re-election underscores his longstanding involvement in the school law community and the organizations that support New Jersey's boards of education and educational institutions.
