By: Nayuan Zouairabani-Trinidad

Nayuan Zouairabani-Trinidad, counsel in Porzio, Bromberg & Newman's Bankruptcy & Financial Restructuring Department, has earned a Band 3 ranking in Dispute Resolution: Bankruptcy (Puerto Rico) in the 2027 edition of Chambers Latin America, building on his previous recognition by Chambers as an Up and Coming attorney.

Published by Chambers and Partners, the Chambers Latin America guide covers 19 jurisdictions across Mexico, Central America, the Caribbean, and South America. Widely regarded as one of the legal profession's most respected ranking publications, Chambers evaluates attorneys through extensive independent research and client and peer feedback, assessing qualities such as legal ability, client service, commercial awareness, professionalism, and diligence.

Zouairabani-Trinidad focuses his practice on bankruptcy, reorganization, and commercial litigation, representing financial institutions, creditors, lenders, and businesses in complex insolvency and restructuring matters. He is particularly known for his work in bankruptcy proceedings and matters arising under the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act (PROMESA), where he has advised stakeholders in some of Puerto Rico's most significant public debt restructuring cases.

Chambers previously recognized Zouairabani-Trinidad as an Up and Coming attorney, noting his "prowess in the Puerto Rican bankruptcy realm." His advancement to Band 3 in the 2027 guide reflects his continued leadership and experience in bankruptcy, restructuring, and creditors' rights matters.
