By: Nayuan Zouairabani-Trinidad

Nayuan Zouairabani-Trinidad, counsel in Porzio, Bromberg & Newman's Bankruptcy & Financial Restructuring Department, has been recognized in the 2027 edition of The Best Lawyers in Puerto Rico™ for his work in Debt & Equity and Insolvency and Reorganization Law. His inclusion continues a record of recognition by Best Lawyers dating to 2021.

Zouairabani-Trinidad focuses his practice on bankruptcy, reorganization, and commercial litigation, representing financial institutions, creditors, lenders, businesses, and other stakeholders in complex insolvency, restructuring, and recovery matters. His experience includes Chapter 7, Chapter 11, Chapter 12, and Chapter 13 bankruptcy proceedings, debt workouts and commercial litigation.

Zouairabani-Trinidad also has significant experience in matters arising under the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management, and Economic Stability Act (PROMESA). He has represented creditors, lenders and other stakeholders in Title III proceedings involving the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and several of its public authorities, including proceedings that resulted in the restructuring of more than $34 billion in public debt through confirmed plans of adjustment.

The Best Lawyers recognition follows Zouairabani-Trinidad's recent Band 3 ranking in Dispute Resolution: Bankruptcy (Puerto Rico) in the 2027 edition of Chambers Latin America, further reflecting his experience in bankruptcy, restructuring and creditors' rights matters in Puerto Rico.

Published annually, The Best Lawyers in Puerto Rico™ recognizes attorneys based on Best Lawyers' Purely Peer Review® methodology, through which lawyers confidentially evaluate the professional abilities of their peers practicing within the same geographic region and area of law. Best Lawyers independently verifies eligibility and professional standing before making its final selections, and lawyers cannot purchase the distinction. The 2027 Puerto Rico edition recognizes 467 lawyers across 118 firms and 46 practice areas, representing approximately 3% of the jurisdiction's legal profession.
