Vito Gagliardi obtains injunction for Cape May, to prevent unlawful referendum, as reported in The Atlantic City Press

October 24, 2013

Superior Court Judge Julio Mendez on Thursday ordered voters in Cape May, West Cape May and Lower Township will not vote on a unlawful referendum Tuesday, November 5. Judge Mendez ruled to effectively terminated the scheduled nonbinding referendum question, asking "whether Cape May should be allowed to leave the Lower Cape May Regional School District or whether the district should be dissolved."

To read the full article, please click here.