

Law360 Quotes Scott Chambers: "Attorneys React To High Court's Induced Infringement Ruling"

May 28, 2015

Scott A.M. Chambers, Ph.D. was quoted by Law360 as to the significance of the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling in Commil USA LLC v. Cisco Systems Inc.

According to Chambers, "While this still permits infringers to avoid past damages with an assertion of non infringement, it is often more difficult to argue non infringement than invalidity."
