

10th Annual Porzio Compliance Forum: "Compliance 2.0 - The Next Level"

December 3, 2015

Porzio, Bromberg & Newman and Porzio Life Sciences, LLC, along with the Seton Hall Law School Center for Health & Pharmaceutical Law & Policy, sponsored the 10th Annual Porzio Compliance Forum, held on December 3, 2015 in Newark, NJ.

"Compliance 2.0 - The Next Level"

Over 100 attendees received practical information and valuable insight into the next level of compliance from life sciences industry leaders.

This year's topics and speakers:

European Transparency: Lessons Learned from the American Experience

- Impact of Transparency on Business
- Expectations in Europe
- Lessons from U.S. Experience

Moderator: Brian Sharkey, Porzio, Bromberg & Newman and Porzio Life Sciences

Panelists:

- Christine Bradshaw, Porzio, Bromberg & Newman and Porzio Life Sciences
- Audrey DeGuarde, Porzio Life Sciences
- Ami Patel, Johnson & Johnson

Internal vs. External Investigations - How Far Have We Come?

- Who Should Conduct Internal Investigations
- Procedures for Conducting Internal Investigations
- Developing Company Policy to Address External Investigations

Moderator: Timothy Glynn, Seton Hall Law School

Panelists:

- Paul Curtin, Allergan/Actavis

- Vito Gagliardi, Jr., Porzio Bromberg & Newman
- Maureen Ruane, Lowenstein Sandler

Data Analytics - How to Use Them to Predict Future Behavior

- Historical Analytics
- Predictive Analytics

Moderator: John Oroho, Porzio, Bromberg & Newman and Porzio Life Sciences

Panelists:

- Sergio Alegre, Pacira Pharmaceuticals
- Richard Eschle, Eisai
- Mark Linver, Huron Consulting

