

Porzio, Bromberg & Newman Mourns the Loss of Founding Partner Myron J. "Mike" Bromberg

May 2, 2016

With much sadness, Porzio, Bromberg & Newman announces Myron J. "Mike" Bromberg passed away on April 30, 2016 at the age of 81. He was one of our three founding principals and served as our managing principal for 28 years, guiding us from a five lawyer general practice firm to one of the most highly regarded law firms in the state. Mike was one of New Jersey's leading trial lawyers of the last fifty years.

Mike was born and raised in Passaic, New Jersey. He was a graduate of Phillips Andover Academy, Yale University and Columbia University School of Law. Upon graduation from Columbia in 1960, Mike joined the practice of Ralph Porzio. Two years later, they recruited John M. Newman to form what would become Porzio, Bromberg & Newman.

Mike's forte was trial law. He was acclaimed as one of the premier trial lawyers in the state, first defending doctors in medical malpractice cases and then pharmaceutical companies in drug products liability cases. He later became national counsel for one of the world's largest mining companies in defense of their national asbestos litigation. Mike was involved in several major cases before the New Jersey Supreme Court, as well as before the 3rd, 8th and 11th U.S. Circuit Courts of Appeals.

He was a charter member of the Trial Attorneys of New Jersey, served as its president and received the Trial Bar Award in 1989. Mike was a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and of the International Academy of Trial Lawyers. Mike was a member of the International Society of Barristers and proudly served as its President from 2000 to 2001. He was also a member of the American Society of Law and Medicine, the American Judicature Society and numerous local, state, national and international law organizations.

Mike was elected to the prestigious American Law Institute and was part of the Consultative Group on Torts: Products Liability, Restatement of the Law, Third. He served as a regular lecturer for the New Jersey Institute of Continuing Legal Education and its New York counterpart, the Practising Law Institute.

He also was an active alumnus of Columbia, Yale and Phillips Andover. Mike cherished the opportunity to mentor young lawyers, particularly those in his firm. Many of the principals of Porzio, Bromberg & Newman began their careers as summer associates or first year associates at the firm. Mike worked closely to hone their skills and was extraordinarily proud when they later became principals of the firm.

Our deepest condolences go out to his family. We will always honor Mike's memory and his contributions to our firm and the legal community.
