Principal Warren J. Martin Jr. Featured in TMA's Journal of Corporate Renewal

July 19, 2016

By: Warren Martin Jr.

Porzio principal Warren J. Martin Jr. is featured in the article "Back on the Boardwalk," by Maura Sage, in the Spotlight section of the July/August 2016 issue of the Turnaround Management Association (TMA) Journal of Corporate Renewal.

The article focused on the 2016 TMA Mid-Atlantic Regional Symposium, held June 8-9 in Atlantic City. Mr. Martin was a member of the lead panel, "The Future of Atlantic City," which explored the financial problems facing Atlantic City, as well as the strategies and prospects for a successful turnaround. The esteemed panel debated the benefits to the city of a Chapter 9 proceeding, versus those of a takeover by the state.

TMA is an organization focusing on the business of financial restructuring, with a majority of members coming from non-legal circles.
To read the Journal of Corporate Renewal article, please click here.