Porzio Business Owners Symposium Series: What Happens When You No Longer "Like" Your Employees

October 21, 2016

By: Kerri Wright, Deirdre Wheatley-Liss, CELA*

Porzio and The Alternative Board of North Central New Jersey (TABNJ) hosted a complimentary seminar of the Business Owners Symposium Series (BOSS) on October 21, 2016 at Porzio's offices in Morristown, New Jersey. The seminar, "Social Media Part Two - What Happens When You No Longer 'Like' Your Employees," was led by Porzio principals Deirdre R. Wheatley-Liss and Kerri A. Wright.

The program offered implementable solutions to practical business issues. Attendees gained up-to-date information from experienced attorneys on areas of law relevant to business owners, and shared strategies to further their business goals.

For more information on BOSS and the dynamic series of programs designed to offer insightful and impactful information to help your business grow, please contact Diane F. Averell, Diane Dunn McKay, Deirdre R. Wheatley-Liss or Kerri A. Wright.

