By: Vito Gagliardi, Jr.

Porzio principal Vito A. Gagliardi, Jr. argued before the New Jersey Supreme Court on February 28, 2017.

Mr. Gagliardi appeared on behalf of amicus curiae New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police (NJSACOP), the client on whose behalf he argued successfully - in a published Appellate Division decision - that a municipality is justified in refusing to produce a log of its police chief's e-mails, including all parties and the subject matter, in response to a request under the Open Public Records Act (Paff v. Galloway Township).
