

Porzio Life Sciences Profiled by International Federation of Pharmaceutical Wholesalers

May 18, 2017

By: Frank Fazio

Porzio Life Sciences (PorzioLS), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the law firm of Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, was featured in the Service Member Spotlight of the International Federation of Pharmaceutical Wholesalers (IFPW) FOCUS Newsletter, on May 18, 2017.

PorzioLS provides non-legal services relating to the pre-approval, launch and commercialization of prescription drugs and medical devices. Additionally, the firm has provided counseling services to the life sciences industry for over 30 years. Together, the companies provide regulatory compliance and legal and business services related to product development, the Prescription Drug Marketing Act (PDMA), anti-kickback statutes, the Sunshine Act, FDA regulations, false claims act, global industry codes and OIG guidances.

The nontraditional combination of Porzio's legal services and PorzioLS' non-legal counseling and solutions allows for greater flexibility and range of services for clients and customers.

To read the full article, please click here.