

Porzio Welcomes Richard Bauch to the Employment and Labor Department

June 1, 2017

By: Richard Bauch

Porzio is pleased to welcome Richard H. Bauch as Of Counsel to the firm and a member of the Employment and Labor Department. He concentrates his practice in the representation of management in the areas of labor and employment, education and general litigation. He is also admitted to the Roster of Superior Court-approved Civil Law Mediators and actively serves as a court-approved civil mediator.

Prior to joining Porzio, Mr. Bauch was a founding member of the firm of Bauch Zucker Hatfield LLC in Springfield, New Jersey. He successfully represented both private and public employers in numerous labor and employment law cases, including discrimination and harassment cases, as well as in whistle-blower and alleged retaliation cases at the trial and appellate levels.

Mr. Bauch completed his J.D. degree at Rutgers University School of Law in Newark, New Jersey. He earned a B.A. in English, cum laude, from New Jersey City University in Jersey City, New Jersey, and an M.A. from the same, where he was a Reading Specialist and Graduate Teaching Fellow.
