Principal Deirdre Wheatley-Liss' Elder Law Event Covered by the Daily Record

July 29, 2017

By: Deirdre Wheatley-Liss, CELA*

Porzio principal Deirdre R. Wheatley-Liss was mentioned in the Daily Record article, "Coping with Confusion, Delusions of Alzheimer's Disease," by Peggy Wright, on July 29, 2017.

Ms. Wheatley-Liss presented at the Alzheimer's New Jersey Morris County Caregiver Conference on July 29, 2017. The session, "Legal and Financial Planning in Dementia Care: What You Need to Know," provided practical guidance to caregivers when planning for dementia care.

Ms. Wheatley-Liss is an in-demand speaker on estate planning, elder law and special needs planning. She has blogged at New Jersey Estate Planning & Elder Law Blog, a leading commentary on developments in tax law, estate planning, estate administration, elder law and business law. She is the author of the published book "Plan Your Own Estate" and is working on a second book about Elder Law and Asset Protection Planning.

To read the full Daily Record article, click here.