Porzio Welcomes Kimmo Abbasi to the Wealth Preservation Department

October 2, 2017

Porzio is pleased to welcome Kimmo H. Abbasi as Counsel to the firm and a member of the Wealth Preservation Department.

Mr. Abbasi has extensive experience in Trust and Estate Law. He counsels clients on asset protection, and drafts wills, trusts, special needs trusts and other estate planning instruments for high net worth individuals, families and business owners. He also counsels business owners on the formation of corporations and limited liability companies, including the drafting and creation of organizational documents such as bylaws and operating agreements. Throughout his years of practice, Mr. Abbasi has developed an extensive network of financial planners, insurance agents and mortgage brokers, in order to provide the most complete and robust service to his clients.

Prior to joining Porzio, Mr. Abbasi was the Founding Partner of Abbasi & Associates, LLC in Midland Park and Jersey City, New Jersey. There he served as general counsel to small businesses throughout New Jersey, New York and Connecticut. He also has years of commercial litigation experience in State and Federal Courts at both the trial and appellate levels.

Mr. Abbasi completed his J.D. degree, cum laude, at New York Law School in New York, NY. He earned his LLM in Taxation from Georgetown University School of Law in Washington, DC and his B.A. in Economics from Rutgers University in New Brunswick, NJ.
