

Methods of Paying Your Taxes

We are providing this guide to you in order to assist you in making the choice of how you would like to pay your taxes to the IRS. Please be advised that some of the methods may charge additional fees.

- Automatic EFT via Porzio, Bromberg and Newman, P.C. (for E-filers only)

You provide our office with the following information:

- Name of your Bank
- Routing Number
- Account Number
- Type of Account i.e. savings, checking)
- If the account is owned jointly
- If the bank is in a foreign country

When your tax return is filed, your payment will automatically be withdrawn on the requested date. There are no additional fees.

- Payments via the IRS.gov website

All of the following methods of payment are available by going to <https://www.irs.gov/payments>

- Direct Pay through your bank
- Debit or Credit Card
- Same-day wire

Please see the following pages for more details and instructions on how to make your payment on the internet.

Direct Pay through your Bank:

1. Go to <https://www.irs.gov/payments> and click on Bank Account (Direct Pay).

2. Click on Make a Payment

Direct Pay With Bank Account

The screenshot shows the IRS 'Direct Pay With Bank Account' page. The top right corner has language links: English and Español. On the left, a sidebar lists options: 'Bank Account (Direct Pay)', 'Pay by Debit or Credit Card', 'Payment Plan', 'Deposit Taxes', 'View Your Account', 'Penalties', 'Tax Withholding', 'Understand Your IRS Notice', 'Foreign Electronic Payments', and 'Payment of User Fees (IVES, Historic Easement, U.S. Residency)'. The main content area has a heading 'Direct Pay With Bank Account' and a subheading 'Use this secure service to pay your taxes for Form 1040 series, estimated taxes or other associated forms directly from your checking or savings account at no cost to you.' Below this is a paragraph about email notifications and a list of bullet points. A second paragraph explains the 'Look Up a Payment' feature. A third paragraph states that users can also view their payment history. At the bottom, there are two buttons: 'Make a Payment' (circled in red) and 'Look Up Payment'. Below these buttons is a section titled 'Availability' with a paragraph and a list of bullet points.
